

*I write as Fee's Dad, and as a doctor first and surgeon second.
She served as a carer and supervisor for nine years. This included night duty looking after Robert with his tetraplegia and tracheostomy. And she cared for many around her.
After her emergency presentation with a vile cancer she has had wonderful care from OUR NHS, her family doctor, and at the ending of her life from the district nurses and the Weldmar Hospice nurses. Around these circles were Andy her partner, and our family, giving their loving care.
Thus circles are completed and that helps our wonderful world go round.
There is at present much planned division and strife in our nation and world. I say and write often that 'to care is the most important characteristic of any worthwhile society.' And even more often 'no mother and child should be in the least harmed anywhere in our still beautiful world'. So in remembering Fee we will do as she did and encourage light and love.*

POEM

*'Farewell My Friends' by Rabindranath Tagore
read by Issy & Nel*

Farewell My Friends
It was beautiful
As long as it lasted
The journey of my life.
I have no regrets
Whatsoever said
The pain I'll leave behind.
Those dear hearts
Who love and care...
And the strings pulling
At the heart and soul...
The strong arms
That held me up
When my own strength
Let me down.
At the turning of my life
I came across
Good friends,
Friends who stood by me
Even when time raced me by.

Farewell, farewell My friends

I smile and
Bid you goodbye.
No, shed no tears
For I need them not
All I need is your smile.
If you feel sad
Do think of me
For that's what I'll like
When you live in the hearts
Of those you love
Remember then
You never die.

QUOTE

Anonymous

I don't want to fight, pick or be petty with whatever time I have left on this earth.
I just want to live,
love, be loved and
be at peace.
